202%Proposed Trips in Brief

The trips listed below are what we haX in mind for 2020 and have decided to repeat in 2021. As usual many of the trips will depend on permissions from Land Councils and other Aboriginal bodies.

"Anne Beadell & Hann's Track"

Currently the most popular of Len's roads, the Anne Beadell Highway is a 1350 km link between Coober Pedy & Laverton in the west. This road was made over quite a few years and there is plenty of Len Beadell history from his diaries written as the road was cut with dozer & grader. We'll also detour via Hann's Track to add a little bit more adventure. This extra leg is a good set of wheel-tracks that follow the route taken by explorer Frank Hann for several years from 1903. We will rejoin the Anne Beadell Highway after completing Frank's route. A very good trip for those interested in unique environments and sites of special interest.

"Centre to South" (this tour is currently booked out)

This is an interesting trip for adventurers with a keen sense history and a liking for remote camping. Using both famous desert roads & forgotten wheel-tracks through outback wilderness areas we travel from the Red Centre through the Great Victoria Desert to the vast Nullarbor Plain & the Myall woodlands that are some of the best camping in the country. Another Beadell Tour riddled with history and of particular note is the ever-changing scenery.
